

Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Alexey Omelchenko, I am a Software Development Manager with a great experience of managing groups of developers and related teams. My background as an engineer and skills in different technologies, platforms and managing approaches gives me ability to talk to programmers on subject, understand pros and cons of different technologies and mentor teams where it is applicable. My experience as a team lead, manager and a head of technology department demonstrates my ability to drive products development in complex environments with multiple stakeholders, to be an interface between business and clients on one side and development or maintenance teams on the other side.

I am looking for a new opportunity to apply my technical and management skills, so I found your job description and would like to apply, because I see good correlation with my background.
If you have any questions regarding my resume, feel free to contact me directly.

Kind regards,

Alexey.
